

The Arnott's Group 11th OUT OF 21 MANUFACTURERS 53 OVERALL SCORE (OUT OF 100)

Areas of strength

- Arnott's highlights nutrition as an area of focus for the company and reports on progress towards nutrition-related commitments in annual, publicly available sustainability reports.
- Arnott's publicly states a target for one third of products in their portfolio to have a Health Star Rating (HSR) of at least 3.5. Arnott's report that 80% of savoury snack and breakfast products in Australia meet the government's Healthy Food Partnership (HFP) reformulation targets for sugar and sodium. They also have a target to increase the proportion of snacks available in portion-controlled packs by 20% by 2025.
- Arnott's commits to full implementation of HSR labelling across products by the end of 2024, and report annually on progress.
- Arnott's publishes a consolidated list of philanthropic originations it supports, and does not make political donations.

Recommended actions for The Arnott's Group

- Set and disclose a target to increase the proportion of sales from healthier products, and publicly report progress against this target each year.
- Develop specific, time-bound targets for sodium, sugar, saturated fat and trans fat reduction across the company's product portfolio, in line with government reformulation targets. Routinely report average levels of risk nutrients by category, including with changes over time.
- Strengthen current policies to effectively reduce the exposure of children (up to age 18) to the marketing of unhealthy products and brands, across all channels and settings. For example, by eliminating the use of marketing techniques that appeal to children, such as animated characters on product packaging, in relation to unhealthy products and brands. Disclose detailed reporting of marketing spend by channel, audience and product healthiness.
- Collaborate with retailers to reduce promotions (e.g. price discounts, promotional displays) for unhealthy products.
